

REDBIRD

1989 Redbird [High School Annual, Ellendale North Dakota]

Dedicated To YOU!

Here's to you, the students of E.H.S. After all, you were the people who made this annual possible. You played the part of practicing, singing, dancing, playing, smiling and just being yourself. So here's the pictures captured and collected all for you who were "Lookin' Fine" in a collage of memories!

You as junior high students sure had it rough making the adjustment going from the grade school to the high school. You did it though and now you are a part of all of us. Freshmen, you sure have been quite a group of people. Filling in the spots that only you could each fill. Making not only the other students year great but especially making my year awesome. Choosing Stuart and I to represent your class for Homecoming was a great honor. And there's those select few who really have helped me out in annual, Joey, Heather, Sarah, Michelle, Kim and Brady. You guys were always ready to lend a helping hand and to you each I say an extra THANKS. Sophomores, you have really taken a step in your lives. You're a little older, a little more mature and have been ready to take on new responsibilities. Your participation in the Science Fair went to show that you were willing to try something new! Thanks also to Tanya, Kari, Missy and Tracy who also really helped me in annual. Juniors, you really were quite the group of people. Prom raised many questions among all. Those questions, such as, "How are they going to do it?" Well you showed us that you could pull together and do the job. It was a job well done and I can say I was quite impressed. Denise Hoffman, you really have done a lot this year. If there was an award for "most willing to give it your all" that award would have to go to you! Not only did you get your class through the Prom but you also really helped out in annual. Thank you and good luck next year as editor. Thank you also to Ryan, Jennifer???, who helped out with all the work. Seniors, last but not least. You are really are Lookin' Fine! I'm not just saying that because I'm a senior but we all have come a long way. Kindergarten was just yesterday and tomorrow we will be taking the steps to the rest of our lives. We have a very different class and lots of people would say that we could never agree, but I think we could all agree that we came together as a class more than expected. Some of us are going off to college or off into the armed forces of the U.S., but we will always remain close friends in our hearts. Good Luck to you all. Finally, the teachers who kept us in line. From junior high school through high school we came to know each other. This year the staff brought on five new faces to the building, Ms. Reader, Mr. Graf, Mr. Nagle, Mr. Horner, and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer. Our teachers have really brought us a long way. To Mrs. Kuck I say Thank You for all the long hours you spent so that we could have a yearbook. You have worked hard over the years to get us all together and teach us to produce great work. Thank you for all your help.

Now stop and think of all the memories that you have made and take time to sit and listen and think. Not just to the noises but to all the sounds around you. Most of all remember to listen to your friends, they are the ones who need you the most. And they will help you get through your high school years. So look in the pages of 1989 with smiles and laughter and remember that "I had the time of my Life and I live it all to you!" You have been a very special student body.

Love and Friends Your Editor,
Christine Klipfel

Standing: Tim Stout, Charlie Tvelt, Trevor Zahn, Rich Houston, Russ Martinson, Doug Pahl, Bill Filbert, Kevin Kusler, Tim Deltemeyer, Matt Deltemeyer, Dean Zimmerman, Dan White, Corey Blumhardt, David Carlson, and Lee McDonald. Kneeling: Carolyn Grimm, Shelley Gall, Coach Gall, Nellee Wagner, and Deanna Hoffman.

The basketball season started out a bit shakey as the guys had to get used to a new coach, Tim Graf, along with new plays and different types of practices. But finally getting it together after the fifth game against Lisbon, our Cardinal guys had their first win! Our four seniors helped bring spirit and determination (along with a few emotions, right Jeffrey!) with the rest of the hardworking underclassmen too. In the end it was a well-desired season.

Golfing In '89

The golf team had an overall good season under the leadership of Mr. Nagle, the new Golf Coach. Many practices had to be cancelled due to a rainy spring. The five graduating Seniors will be missed next year as they have had much experience and supported our team for many years.

Show Team really pulled together well considering all the new members and two new advisors (Vicky Hack and Shanda Merkel). The Cardettes took a first in novelty and a third in precision at state competition — that's something to be proud of! Competitiveness was high at competition and that's why we're proud to say that the word "team" was then replaced by the word "family!"

Staff

Your yearbook staff was busy taking pictures, designing pages, and getting the facts for the written copy. We were pleased with the number of new members (especially those Freshmen!) and are looking forward to their new and original ideas. The hours were long and demanding but filled with companionship and unusual happenings!

Speech

The speech team consisted of only one member this year. Our Foreign exchange student from Germany, Britta Van Eckles, represented our school in district competition. Britta was coached by advisor Mr. Masset.

Drama

The Drama Club spent many hours rehearsing lines, getting props, working with lighting and sound equipment, and learning how to get the performance across to the audience. It was fun for the members and the audience who watched the CINDERELLA COMPLEX.

Homecoming '88

You can't say that.

Homecoming — a week of celebration! This year's homecoming was one that displayed an abundance of school spirit. The school walls were almost completely covered by posters that were either campaigning for a homecoming queen or pushing for a Cardinal victory. Congratulations to the class of — 92 — who received both the spirit award plus the poster award. Wyndmere "Bobcats" lost to one of our many Cardinal victories.

Juniors

The Juniors kept very busy with all the school activities that keep mounting. Whether it was basketball, wrestling, volleyball, or any of the other athletic activities or the extracurricular activities such as, Jazz Band, Swing Choir, Drill Team, Cheerleading, or Annual Staff, to name a few, a large portion of the Junior class was involved. However, much of the energy was used on our class activities, especially fund raisers, like the slave auction and magazine sales. The proceeds of these went to the biggest activity of our Junior year, the Prom. All in all, it has been a fun year, but who's to say next year won't be even better?

Ode to the Class of '89

Thirty-two people compose the class of '89
Through twelve school years we went, rain or shine.
Many tears we've shed,
Many books we've read,
All of the games we've played,
Are only part of the memories we've made.
The friendships here will last forever, These ties
we've made will never sever.
We've learned to win and lose,
We've learned to pick and choose.
Together we made our prom number one,
But now it's time to step into the sun.
The future lies within our hands,
It's up to us to bring tranquility to the lands.
We've grown up, but not apart,
This isn't the end, but just the start.

— Tanya Zahn

Zahn and Werre lead Ellendale

Tanya Zahn and Deb Werre led Ellendale past their state line rivals Frederick 49-26 in local girls basketball action on Thursday night October 6th.

The Cardinals had a 20 point lead in the 2nd quarter, 8 of her 13 at halftime

Ellendale third and they out-0 in the
